

THE ANTHROPOLOGY
CLUB PRESENTS:
WHAT SHOULD WE DO WITH
'DIFFICULT' MONUMENTS?

A ROUNDTABLE DISCUSSION
ON NEGOTIATING PUBLIC
HISTORY AND CULTURAL PRESERVATION IN THE
WAKE OF CHARLOTTESVILLE

Tues. Sept. 5th
3:30PM-4:15PM
PHILIPS AUTOGRAPH
LIBRARY - WEST CHESTER UNIVERSITY

Featuring:

DR. TERESITA MAJEWSKI

- VICE PRESIDENT, STATISTICAL RESEARCH, INC.
- PRESIDENT, AMERICAN CULTURAL RESOURCES ASSOCIATION

DR. MICHAEL A. DI GIOVINE

- ASSISTANT PROFESSOR OF ANTHROPOLOGY, WCU
- CONVENOR, ANTHROPOLOGY OF TOURISM INTEREST GROUP

DR. JANNEKEN SCHUCKER

- ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR OF HISTORY, WCU

Moderated by: Liz Strauss
President, WCU Anthropology Club

In the wake of Charlottesville, what is the place of civic monuments in the public sphere, especially when they attest to difficult times in our social history? This interdisciplinary roundtable brings together experts in cultural resource management, public history and heritage tourism to discuss how we negotiate public history, institutional racism, and historic preservation. For more information, please contact Michael Di Giovine at mdigiovine@wcupa.edu